Chinese Kou Xiang (4 leaves) in plain wooden box

€32.50

The four small brass jew's harps are tuned to a melodious unit. Each of the four trumps has its own keynote on which you can play several overtones. Traditionally there are lots of complex melodies for the Kou Xiang. But it is also something like a "polyphone pocket synthesizer" for the experimental musician and of course a must for every jew's harp maniac. The sound dimensions will blow up all your expectations. Look out! Addictive!

Quadruple Set in wooden case

Length: approx. 5 cm (1.9")

For the moment we have just the model tuned in B-E-C-A:
